Mat. McCabe, of New Brunswick, Ill., offers to pay five dollars to any person troubled with bloody flux, who will take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions and does not get well in the shortest possible time. One half of a 25-cent bottle of this remedy cured him of bloody flux, after he tried other medicines and the prescriptions of physicians without benefit. Mr. McCabe is perfectly safe in making this offer, as more than a thousand bottles of this remedy are sold each day and it has never been known to fail in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea or bloody flux, when the plain printed directions were followed. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

FOR SALE: Eight head of cows and heifers of fine breed, also one Jersey cow with calf. Apply at this office or to J. T. Savage, V. & T. R. R. j 22 1w

How Can Parents allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

People in general should know what's best to do in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. What on Earth is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

The Picnic.

Thirteen carloads of picnickers came down from Virginia and Gold Hill yesterday to attend the Caladenian picnic. There was also a large number from Reno and other places.

At 11 o'clock the contests for prizes began with the following results:

Throwing heavy hammer—J. McDonald first and James Vair second.

Throwing light hammer.—John McDonald first and James Vair second.

Putting heavy stone—John McDonald first and R. Campbell second.

Putting light stone—William McDonald first and John McDonald second.

Members' race—James Vair first and J. Foster second.

Sack race—Tim Lynch first and Jim Vair second.

Standing lump—Clarence Sands first and J. Shaughnessy second.

Running jump—Tim Lynch first and C. Sands second.

Running high jump—C. Sands first and J. Macnamara second.

Vaulting with pole—This was quite hotly contested. There were five entries, and each contestant was allowed three trials at each change of height, but was thrown out when he failed to go over in three trials. All cleared the 8-foot notch, and all but three failed on 8 feet two inches. When the bar was raised to 8 feet 4 it was cleared by J. O'Farrell only, R. McDonald and Will Davis failing, thus making a tie for second prize. These two vaulted to decide the tie, and both cleared 8 feet 6 and 8 feet 9, but failed on 8 feet 10. They then threw "heads and tails" for second and Davis won.

Tossing the caber—John McDonald first and Wm. Donald second.

Ladies' race—Cony Coronado first and Miss Zapp second.

Boys' race—F. Little first and E. Smith second.

Egg race—Kitty McDonald won the prize.

The fat men's race and old ladies' races were not run on account of a lack of contestants.

Truckee won the baseball match, beating Virginia by a score of 8 to 6.

Rifle Shooting—Carson won both matches by a score of 417 first class and 395 second class.

The crowd was very orderly, and the picnic was well conducted throughout.

Howard R. Hetrick, a reporter who died at St. Joe a few days ago was known all over the country. He was one of the best reporters in the business, and thoroughly familiar with all branches of the profession. Hetrick was born at Easton, Pennsylvania, and was a graduate of Lafayette college. His father was for many years editor and proprietor of the Northampton Whig, the great exponent of Republican principles in the old Tenth Legion, Pennsylvania's overwhelming Democratic district. His family stood exceptionally high, and all his brothers hold positions of trust and honor, three being on this coast, one being connected with the Mint at Carson, one with the Mint in this city and the third an assayer in San Diego. Hetrick was a careful polished writer. He possessed the news instinct in a high degree, and had a wonderful facility for putting it into readable shape. His was a stormy life, and those who knew him best loved him most.—S. F. Report.

Cough! and Cough! and Cough!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Monbars.

Robert Mantell with his entire Eastern company, costumes and properties will afford the patrons of the drama an intellectual dramatic treat at the Carson Opera House on Tuesday evening next in his production of D'Ennery's great drama "Monbars." The St. Louis Republican says:

The ever popular favorite, Robert Mantell, filled the Olympic Theatre last evening with a distinguished audience on the second presentation in this city of his powerful drama, "Monbars," in which Mr. Mantell made so decided a hit in this city last season. With the piece the play-goers of the city are already familiar, and its singular charm and power are sufficiently attested by its drawing powers. Mr. Mantell has made good use of the time since his last visit to St. Louis, and his interpretation of the title role is even more finished and satisfactory than before. He is an actor of unusual magnetism and sympathy, and carries his audiences wholly with him to every climax in the play, and rarely has the Olympic rung with more enthusiastic and hearty applause than greeted Mr. Mantell's efforts last evening. He has wisely surrounded himself with a company of intelligent actors, who heighten the charm of his own finished work by the artistic support they give him. Mr. Mantell received a triple recall at the end of the fourth act and was again called before the curtain at the conclusion of the play.

NIAGARA AS A MOTOR.—The Niagara Hydraulic Electric Company have regularly incorporated and recently held a meeting at Alexandria, Va., for the purpose of receiving reports in regard to plans for the utilization of the water power at Niagara Falls. It is stated that the company has secured from the Ontario Government to use the water at the Horse Shoe Falls on the Canadian side, and that they intend to secure their power by tunnelling through the rocks to the bed of the river thereby obviating danger from ice and wreckage, and also leaving undisturbed the beauty of the scenery. The company proposes, with the power secured, to furnish light, power and heat to various points within a radius of forty miles. It also intends to build electric railways to Buffalo, Lockport, Clifton, Hamilton and other places. Work, it is said, will commence this month, and that a syndicate of American and Canadian capitalists has been formed to furnish the money.

ADAM NOT THE AUTHOR.—A little girl in Plainfield, N. J., whose parents attend the Crescent-avenue Presbyterian Church, was very thoughtful on the way home from morning service on a recent Sunday. The last hymn had been "Eve Me, Even me." Finally she asked her mother, who was holding her hand: "Mamma, did Adam write that hymn?" "Why, no, my child," said her mamma; "why do you ask?" "Because it says 'Eve and Me.'"
